THE GAZETTE

Containing the freshest Advices,

Foreign and Domestic.

From WEDNESDAY June 8th, to WEDNESDAY June 15th, 1748.

Charles-Town, June 14, 1748.

Mr. Timbley,

At a Time, when we see so great an Intercourse between this Province and the French Ports at St Domingo, carried on by Flags of Truce (as well French as English) insomuch that the Harbour of Charles-Town for some Time past has scarce ever been without one and sometimes three or four; when at length our Bakers are rendered unable to supply every Family with Bread; and the General Assembly have thought it so necessary to take Care of our own Subsistence, that they are now about passing a Bill to prohibit the Exportation of Provisions; I say, at such a Time it is highly necessary, and must be agreeable to all such as prefer the Interest and Welfare of their Country to their own private Gain, that every one should be made acquainted with his Majesty's Proclamation on the 19th Day of February last, touching any Correspondence or Communication, by Way of Commerce or otherways, with the French Subjects, to, in, or from any of the French Dominions. I therefore send you the London Gazette (which came over some Time ago) wherein the said Proclamation is printed; and which is to be seen also re-printed in the New-England Papers by the special Direction of Governor Shirley. I am,

Your most humble Servant, W. L.

From the LONDON GAZETTE, February 20, 1747-8.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS on the 15th Day of March, in the Year 1744, N.S. the French King published a Declaration of War against us, and we, for divers just and important Reasons highly concerning us, our Kingdoms and Allies, did think fit to declare War against the French King by our Declaration of the 20th Day of March 1744, and did thereby require our Generals and Commanders, of our Forces, our Commissioners for executing the Office of High Admiral of Great Britain, our Lieutenants of our several Counties, Governors of our Forts and Garisons, and all other Officers under them, by Sea and Land, to do and execute all Acts of Hostility in the Prosecution of the said War against the French King, his Vassals and Subjects, willing and requiring all our Subjects, to take Notice of the same; and we did thereby strictly prohibit and forbid all our Subjects to hold any Correspondence or Communication with the Subjects of the French King: And whereas we have received Information that some of our Subjects have secretly carried on Trade and Commerce with the Subjects of the French King, in direct Violation of and Disobedience to our said Royal Prohibition, and in Defiance of the Punishments which may by Law be inflicted for such high Contempts and Offences, during the Time of open War; We therefore taking the same into our Royal Consideration, and to the End that none of our Subjects may pretend or plead Ignorance or Forgetfulness of our said Royal Prohibition, and the true Extent, Meaning and Import thereof, or of the Danger they are exposed to by their Disobedience to the same, have thought fit, by and with the Advice of our Privy Council, to issue this our Royal Proclamation, hereby publishing and declaring, That all Correspondence and Communication, as well by way of Trade or Commerce as otherwise, with the said French King or his Subjects, or in, to, or from the Dominions of the said French King, are and were included in our said Royal Prohibition. And we do publish and declare, That all Commerce, Trade and Traffick to or from France, or any other the Dominions of the said French King, and the Exporting or Importing of any Goods, Merchandizes or Commodities to or from France, or any other the Dominions of the said French King, by any of our Subjects, without our Licence in that Behalf, are great Misdemeanours, and high Violations and Contempts of our Royal Authority, and for which the Offenders are liable to severe Punishment, by and according to the Laws of this our Realm. And we do hereby strictly prohibit and forbid all our Subjects of Great-Britain, Ireland, Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, Isle of Man, Minorca, and the Town and Port of Gibraltar, and of any our Colonies and Plantations in America, and all other our Dominions, that they do not directly or indirectly carry on any Commerce, Trade or Traffick, or export or import any Goods, Merchandizes or Commodities to or from France, or any other the Dominions of the said French King, upon Pain of our highest Displeasure. And we do hereby publish and declare, that all Persons offending herein, and acting contrary to our said Royal Prohibition, shall be prosecuted for the same with the utmost Severity and Rigour of the Law. And we do hereby strictly charge and command all our Admirals, Captains, Commanders of our Ships of War, and all Officers of the Admiralty, and all Commissioners of our Customs, Customers, Comptrollers, Searchers, Surveyors, and other Officers of our Customs, to be faithful and diligent in seeing this our Royal Proclamation duly observed: And all Justices of the Peace, Sheriffs, Mayors, Bailiffs, Constables, Headboroughs, and other our Officers and Subjects, to be aiding and assisting in the Discovery and Prosecution of the Offenders, and in the preventing all such Commerce, Trade and Traffick, to the utmost of their Power.

Given at our Court at St. James's, the 19th Day of February, 1747, in the Twenty-first Year of our Reign.
GOD Save the KING.

CHARLES-TOWN, June 15.

We have received from Providence, the following Account of a very unhappy Accident that happened lately between two English Privateers: Some Time past, Capt. Richard Haddon of the Flying-Fish of New-York, consorted (on the Coast of Hispaniola) with the Nancy Privateer Schooner of Providence, commanded by Capt. Snelling, which was soon after cast away on the French Keys. Haddon sav'd many Things belonging to the Wreck, viz. Guns, small Arms, Sails, Stores, Provision, &c. which he took on board his Vessel, with Snelling himself, and several Slaves that were Seamen, belonging to Providence, some of which he afterwards sent down to Providence, but detain'd 5 in his Service; these (as well as the aforesaid Effects) he refused to deliver to a other Privateer belonging to Providence, who happening to meet with Haddon, demanded their Owners Property. Soon after Capt. Samuel Green, who commanded a Sloop belonging to his Excellency Governor Tisher, named the Hawk, (of 14 Carriage and 20 Swivel Guns) sail'd on a Cruise, and while he was watering at Crooked-Island, two large Vessels bearing in Sight, Green weigh'd and stood after them, supposing them to be Enemies Privateers: He was soon along side of one of them, which prov'd to be the Flying-Fish, and the other in Company was an English Flag of Truce which Haddon had taken and was carrying with him to New-York, for which Place he was then steering. Green took this Opportunity to demand from Haddon the aforesaid Slaves (two of which belonged to his Owner) as well as the other other Effects taken out of the Nancy. Haddon said he must have Salvage; Green replied he should have it, and desir'd Haddon to follow him in to an Anchor for that Purpose, which Haddon refus'd to do, and bid Green send his Boat on board, to shew what Authority he had for such a Demand. Green told him his Boat was at the Watering-place, but order'd him to deliver the Slaves and Goods, or he would take them by Force of Arms. Haddon replied he might if he would, with some provoking Language. Green then gave him Warning twice more, and that not availing, gave the Command to fire: Accordingly Four Waste Guns, some Swivels and small Arms were fired: all the shot went over, except one of the former, which entering the side of the Flying-Fish, kill'd two white Men and one Negro, carried off the Leg of another, and wounded a Negro in the Thigh; upon which Haddon hawl'd down his Colours, and Green sending for him, he (Haddon) with the rest of his Officers went on board the Hawk; then Green took out the Negroes, and told Haddon, he might go about his Business, saying he was sorry any of his Men should be kill'd, his Intention being only to intimidate him into a Compliance with his just Demand. Haddon replied, he was a Prisoner and would not take Possession of his Vessel till it was restor'd to him by Law, and order'd all his Officers and Men to desert her and take no further Charge. Green then in his own Defence was obliged to send one of his Officers and some People to preserve her, and so made Sail for Providence, where he arriv'd on the 15th ult. but before he enter'd the Harbour, taking his People out, put those belonging to the Flying-Fish on board their own Vessel, and the Pilot carried her into Port. Green and Haddon went ashore together in the Pilot-Boat, and presented themselves before the Governor, related to him their different Stories, upon whose referring them to the Courts of Justice, Haddon immediately went before the Chief Justice, and swore Murder and Piracy against Green, who was thereupon taken into Custody, and is to be tried for his Life by that Commission.

The Dover, Hodgson, from Newcastle, which arrived here on Monday last, has retaken and brought in a Sloop from St. Kitts for Philadelphia, laden with Rum, Sugar and Melasses, that had been taken by the Spaniards: The Dover met with her on Thursday about 12 Leagues from this Bar.

Add we hear, that Capt. Wray in his Majesty's Ship Rye, has retaken a Schooner belonging to this Port, and sent her into Port-Royal.
